B.A. in Humanities: Art concentration

Complete 39 credits total, 21 of which must be upper-division. To fulfill this, there are two ways--

Plan A: Earn at least 24 semester hours (of which 15 semester hours must be upper-division) in a chosen primary concentration and at least 15 semester hours (of which 6 semester hours must be upper-division) in a chosen secondary concentration.

or

Plan B: This option allows you to combine three closely-related humanities areas, earning at least 9 credits in each area (with 21 total upper-division credits).

Sample coursework

... which would fulfill requirements for the B.A. in Humanities: Art concentration

ART 103 (ARTS)	3D Art and Design
ART 110 (ARTS)	Drawing
ART 201 (ARTS)	World Art History 1
ART 303 (ARTS)	Modern Art: 19th Century
ART 320	Beginning Painting
ART 381	Beginning Photography
ART 370	Introduction to Printmaking
ART 498 (CAPS) [M]	Contemporary Issues Seminar

And then 15 additional credits in your “secondary” area of study (including one ‘M’ course).

In addition to the University Core requirements, the College of Arts and Sciences requires one [EQJS] course (3 credits) and one additional [BSCI] or [PSCI] lab (no additional science credits), and possibly foreign language (either two years in high school or one year of foreign language in college).

Courses that count toward the UCORE requirements can count additionally toward the degree.

Some courses may be repeated for credit. (eg. ART 370 Introduction to Printmaking)

ART 110: Drawing is a great all-around starting point, allowing you to take other Fine Arts courses that have a prerequisite.
